

STEP 2 Research

When you're looking for Home Insurance, the options can seem endless. It doesn't hurt to take a look around before you jump right in. Talk to friends and neighbours and check out what different insurance providers offer.

Red River Mutual offers packages that are tailored to the different needs of homeowners.

Broad Package Policy

This package policy provides broad protection for your house, as well as coverage for loss or damage to your belongings due to a list of named causes (known as 'perils'). It serves as a starting off point for people who want good coverage, for a reasonable price.

Comprehensive Package Policy

This policy expands the list of named perils to offer additional protection for you and your belongings.

Extra Homeowners Package

This is for homeowners who need extra coverage for their higher value homes and items. Along with the existing home policy coverages Extra includes:

Extra personal liability coverage

---

Extra coverage for equipment breakdown and sewer backup

---

Extra protection for your dependants attending university

---

Extra coverage for your jewelry, gold and silver

---

Extra coverage for your underground service line

---

In addition to these packages, Red River Mutual offers a range of add-ons, so you can tailor your coverage to your specific situation. Check them out on our Home Insurance page, and see if any are right for you!

Next Step: Ask a Broker ➔